10:10—11:00 am (continued)	Critical Thinking Assessment Process: Facilitated by Toño Ramirez ATC Building room 202 Beginning at the 2012 campus convocation, De Anza began developing a tool for assessing our “Critical Thinking” ICC campus wide. This workshop will introduce the tool, which is now ready for use by all campus faculty and staff. A collaborative demonstration of assessing Critical Thinking will ensue. Assessing SSLOs and AUOs: Facilitated by Mallory Newell & Mary Pape, ATC Building room 205 This session will focus on refining your current AUO/SSLO statements or developing brand new ones, with a focus on turning goals into learning outcomes. You will leave the session with a statement, assessment tool and timeline for implementation. Join us for an hour of fun, interactive work on AUOs and SSLOs.
11:10—12:00 noon	Breakout Sessions II Developing Department/Division Equity Plan: Facilitated by Cynthia Kaufman and Veronica Neal ATC Building room 204 Repeat from Breakout Session I. SLO Assessments Reveal Provocative Findings: Facilitated by Toño Ramirez ATC Building room 202 The best outcomes assessment work will occasionally yield surprising (and not always flattering) results. In this workshop, a few examples of surprising results will be introduced and discussed. Participants will then discuss methods for cultivating methods that go beyond embedded assessment, in an effort to confront potentially uncomfortable truths both inside and outside the classroom. Assessment Process for Adjunct Faculty Facilitated by Amy Leonard, Jeff Schinske, and Mary Pape, ATC Building room 205 Step by step assistance for completing a student learning outcome assessment: choosing method of assessment, providing assessment data, reflecting on results, and enhancing learning experiences based on results. Taking It To the Next Level—Exploring Alternative Assessment Methods: Facilitated by Mayra Cruz, ATC Building room 311
12 noon—1:00 pm	Lunch provided plus a surprise
Outcome #2	Faculty will dialog on SLO work at course and program level adding final tweaks to the Comprehensive Program Review
